

Kentucky Horse Park Trip
Monday, May 20, 2017

Interested persons – meet in the lobby of Boone Tavern at 9:00 am

About Kentucky Horse Park, Lexington, KY

The only park of its kind in the world, the Kentucky Horse park is a working horse farm, education theme park and equine competition facility dedicated to man's relationship with the horse. Set on more than 1,200 acres, in the heart of Kentucky's famous Bluegrass region, the park is THE place to get close to horses! Featuring dozens of breeds of horse at work and at play, the park showcases the horse in daily equine presentations and horse drawn tours. There are events going on in the park throughout the day.

The parks International Museum of the Horse, a Smithsonian affiliate, is the worlds largest equestrian museum.

The American Saddlebred Museum celebrates Kentucky's first native breed of horse.

There will be tons of photo ops for horse lovers and you will be able to get up close with the horses.

Wear comfortable shoes and casual clothing appropriate for Kentucky's seasonal weather.

There are a couple of on-site restaurants if you would like to have a meal while you are there.

Admission Price:

$22.00 for the day

Senior Discount (62+) $18.00 for the day

The park is open 9:00am – 5:00pm

If you would like to learn more about the Kentucky Horse Park, check out their website: www.kyhorsepark.com